Saturday Evening

ST. GEORGE HOTEL – Brooklyn, New York

The President Welcomes You...

Det. Joseph Concheiro

"On behalf of members of the Hispanic Society of the Police Department, City of New York, I extend to you a warm and a sincere welcome to our sixth Annual Installation Dinner & Dance".

"THE HISPANIC SOCIETY"

POEM WRITTEN BY PTL. ROY A NUÑEZ

They call us "The Latinos", for we're latins through and through!

In fact we're Pan Americans, the same as "You and you!"

So therefore we have formed a group for everyone to see

*And as you know, named it:
"The Hispanic Society".*

Our aim's not to impress one, 'cause there's more for us to do.

For we have learned together, we'll go forward as a crew.

To help each other to progress, "this goal is not in vain."

Regardless if our ancestors are from Timbucktoo or Spain!
